Communications

Mr. Hicks went to the Chamber Breakfast with Dr. Perlini. It was great to have Dr. Perlini meet the public. There was a resignation at the Magnet School that the Board is in the process of filling.

Mrs. Adams asked how many students are at TEMS this year.

Mr. Hicks said that he believes there are four, but information will be provided to the full Board.

Mrs. Fronc said that she received a call from the Strong School teacher just to check in.

Mrs. Buckheit said that Durham Fitness was going to do a carwash and the town said that it could not be done in the parking lot. There are specific places where they can be done. School systems are being discouraged from doing them. There are lots of regulations regarding the way and where they can be done.

Mr. Hicks said that CT Parents Union called regarding a residency issue. The woman had lots of demands. She also sent an email as well. Mrs. Flanagan asked the members to refer the person to Dr. Perlini if she calls.
